

ECU History 360 – SPACES technique for analyzing documents

Source	S Write a summary of the text. Be sure to include the central idea(s) and make a clear connection between key details and ideas. RH.11-12.2	P What is the author's purpose ? How do you know? Cite specific textual evidence to support your response. RH.11-12.1	A Analyze the text structure. What specific sentences, paragraphs, images, etc. contribute to the overall meaning of the text? RH.11-12.5	C What claims are made in the text? RH.11-12.6	E What evidence is used to support the claims in the text? Is the evidence relevant? Why or why not? RH.11-12.6	S What is the author's slant ? What similarities and differences do you notice in point of view and presentation of claims between this text and other texts we have reviewed? RH.11-12.6

Source	S Write a summary of the text. Be sure to include the central idea(s) and make a clear connection between key details and ideas. RH.11-12.2	P What is the author's purpose ? How do you know? Cite specific textual evidence to support your response. RH.11-12.1	A Analyze the text structure. What specific sentences, paragraphs, images, etc. contribute to the overall meaning of the text? RH.11-12.5	C What claims are made in the text? RH.11-12.6	E What evidence is used to support the claims in the text? Is the evidence relevant? Why or why not? RH.11-12.6	S What is the author's slant ? What similarities and differences do you notice in point of view and presentation of claims between this text and other texts we have reviewed? RH.11-12.6

Source	S Write a summary of the text. Be sure to include the central idea(s) and make a clear connection between key details and ideas. RH.11-12.2	P What is the author's purpose? How do you know? Cite specific textual evidence to support your response. RH.11-12.1	A Analyze the text structure. What specific sentences, paragraphs, images, etc. contribute to the overall meaning of the text? RH.11-12.5	C What claims are made in the text? RH.11-12.6	E What evidence is used to support the claims in the text? Is the evidence relevant? Why or why not? RH.11-12.6	S What is the author's slant? What similarities and differences do you notice in point of view and presentation of claims between this text and other texts we have reviewed? RH.11-12.6

Source	S Write a summary of the text. Be sure to include the central idea(s) and make a clear connection between key details and ideas. RH.11-12.2	P What is the author's purpose ? How do you know? Cite specific textual evidence to support your response. RH.11-12.1	A Analyze the text structure. What specific sentences, paragraphs, images, etc. contribute to the overall meaning of the text? RH.11-12.5	C What claims are made in the text? RH.11-12.6	E What evidence is used to support the claims in the text? Is the evidence relevant? Why or why not? RH.11-12.6	S What is the author's slant ? What similarities and differences do you notice in point of view and presentation of claims between this text and other texts we have reviewed? RH.11-12.6